Experience Puerto Rico this summer

Summer Seminar in Puerto Rico for Future Educators (C I 498X)

Expand your understanding of different cultures and educational approaches through Penn State’s Summer Seminar in Puerto Rico. This 3-credit course will be held from August 2 to 16, 2009, at the Universidad del Este’s main campus in Carolina and will include cultural excursions and teaching experiences in Puerto Rican schools.

The program cost of $3,392 covers undergraduate tuition, course materials, lodging at the InterContinental San Juan Resort, weekday breakfasts and lunches at the Universidad del Este’s main campus in Carolina, airport shuttle service, and transportation to all sponsored cultural events and schools. The participants are responsible for airfare, evening and weekend meals, and spending money. A deposit of $170 is nonrefundable after May 22, 2009.

The Summer Seminar in Puerto Rico is open to only ten students in these education programs: elementary education, early childhood, and world languages (Spanish). Students must have all federal and state clearances to register.

Penn State on your résumé—It Shows